

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

On the third Monday in January we celebrate Martin Luther King Day.

He was born in 1929 in Georgia.

He worked for equal rights for black people.

He helped lead peaceful protests. It was a hard fight. He was attacked and arrested many times.

In 1963, Dr. King led a quarter million people in a march to Washington D.C.

While there, he gave his famous "I Have a Dream" speech.

He spoke about his hopes for America. He said people should be judged by their hearts, not by their skin color.

His efforts helped bring about new laws to create equal rights for all Americans.
